COMMODORE GARRISON DEAD.

A Lynching at Kansas—Why the Force was Reduced—Another Bloody Mystery.

Stock Yard Charges.

CHICAGO, May 1.—The bill before the Illinois Legislature, regulating charges on stock yards in the State, passed its third reading in the House yesterday, by a vote of 83 to 12. This is the fourth time the bill has been before the Legislature. Should the act become a law, it would entirely revolutionize the various modes of doing business in the various stock yards in the State. The bill fixes the rates for yardage at 15 cents per head for horses, mules and cattle; 50 cents for horses and 40 cents for sheep. This is a reduction of 100 cents on horses, cattle and mules, 20 cents on sheep and 40 cents on hogs, and it is made unlawful to charge for feed more than 50 cents in excess of the market price, that is, if corn is 40 cents a bushel in the market, 80 cents is charged for feed at the stock yards, and if hay is $10 a ton at the yard, the charge is $20. The section relating to the sale of dead animals is one of the most important, and if it should remain as passed in the House, it would destroy the business of rendering companies. According to the ruling of the Chicago Stock Yard Company, a rendering company has a monopoly of the dead animal trade, and paid such prices as they pleased, and regulated the trade to suit themselves. In case the bill becomes a law, the traffic in dead animals will be as open as any other. The reduction in charges and feed, as proposed, is equal to about 40 per cent., as compared with the present schedule.

Commodore Garrison Dead.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Commodore Cornelius K. Garrison died at his late residence, No. 42 Park Avenue, this city, just before noon to-day. The Commodore died at 1 o'clock, of paralysis of the heart. He was 70 years of age. Eight years ago he had a stroke of paralysis, which has affected his entire right side ever since. On Thursday evening, he entertained some friends at dinner and was unusually bright. He talked at his assignment of last June and expressed the opinion that he would soon have all the property back in his own hands. The surplus estate is estimated to be worth from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000. The funeral will take place on Monday.

Lynching.

HEAT BRAND, Kan., May 1.—Richard Parker, who murdered his employer here on Sunday morning, was captured at Kansas City and returned here by train last night. The train was stopped about half a mile from town, where a crowd of men took the prisoner from the officers, a rope was tied around his neck and he was dragged to town behind a horse at full gallop; he was taken to the jail, where he was committed to the prison and hanged to the awning in front of the building. The body hung for about fifteen minutes when it was cut down by the coroner.

Accident on the D. & R. G.

DENVER, May 1.—News was received here at midnight that the Salt Lake Express, which left here at 6:45 this evening, was wrecked half a mile west of Marshall Pass. Two or three emigrants were slightly and two brakemen were badly hurt. The accident was caused by the derailment of the tender.

Why the Force was Reduced.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The reduction of the force at Philadelphia was based on instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, through the director of the mint, calling on officers in charge of all the mints and assay offices to reduce their expenses to the lowest possible limit compatible with the needs of the service.

General Grant.

NEW YORK, May 1.—General Grant passed a very quiet night. To-day the General has been dictating to Stenographer Waller for his book.

NEW YORK, May 1.—"The Generalist improves, it all I can say to-night," said Colonel Fred Grant this evening. "He dictated for an hour and a half to-day and will finish up the Appomattox campaign to-morrow. He begins now to feel confident himself that he will recover."

Last Fall.

CHAMBERLAIN'S JAVA Coffees for sale at Hardy Bros. & Burton, Barnes & Davis and Cunningham & Co.

Another Mystery.

PITTSBURGH, May 1.—This evening, the baggage-master at the Union depot, upon bursting open a trunk which gave out a suspicious odor, was horrified to find therein the body of a man, securely bound and in an advanced state of decomposition. The face was badly discolored and bloated, and the stench was so great that it kept at a safe distance the large crowd which quickly gathered. The trunk was a common wooden one and evidently had not been in use before. It arrived from Chicago over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company at 6 a. m., on the morning express, and was checked 471, but no person called to claim it. The baggage-master noticed the peculiar smell when it was unloaded from the train this morning, but no attention was paid to it until this evening when the stench became unbearable. There was no mark of violence. The body was that of a laboring man, about 30 years old, short build, smooth face. He was dressed in a pair of checkered pants, blue cotton shirt, blue woolen stockings, and had on his feet a pair of new congress gaiters.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Late this afternoon the President made the following appointments: Thomas M. Ferrell, to be collector of internal revenue for the first district of New Jersey, vice Wm. P. Tatom, suspended; Spruille Braden, to be assayer at the United States assay office, Boise City, Idaho, vice Normal H. Camp, suspended; George Hayes, to be supervising inspector of steam vessels for the fifth district, vice Mark D. Flower, suspended. The appointment of George B. Clark, of Missouri, and William King, of Georgia, to be internal revenue agents, vice A. H. Clark, of Kentucky, and T. J. Grimsor, of Pennsylvania, resigned, took effect to-day. E. J. Hale, who was to-day appointed consul at Manchester, England, is a native of North Carolina, about 45 years of age, and editor of the Lafayetteville, North Carolina, Observer. T. Whitney, of Maine, removed. He also ordered the removal of special agent S. E. Chamberlain. One of the reasons alleged for his removal is that he was born in Vermont. He was appointed from Virginia and voted in Maryland.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Secretary of the Treasury, to-day, received from a western bank two $1,000 7-30 notes of 1885, which are believed at the department to be counterfeit.

The Secretary of the Treasury, to-day appointed Wm. F. Switzer, of Missouri, to be Chief Clerk of the Bureau of Statistics.

J. B. Baird, of Georgia, to-day received his appointment as superintendent of the Dead Letter office, and immediately entered upon the discharge of his duties.

A dispatch was received this afternoon at the Navy Department from Commander McCalla, from Panama, stating that everything was conducted quietly, and that the people generally were well satisfied. The health of the force remains good.

The Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The debt statement issued to-day shows a decrease of the public debt during the month of April to be $5,464,596.38. Decrease of the debt since June 30, 1884, $50,775,229.98. J. A. Tawney, Esq., a leading attorney of Chicago, Minn. writes: "After using it for more than three years, I take great pleasure in stating that I regard Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, as the best remedy in the world for Coughs and Colds. It has never failed to cure the most severe colds I have had, and invariably relieves the pain in the chest."

Base Ball.

DETROIT, Mich., May 1.—Detroit, 8; Buffalo, 2. ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Chicago, 5; St. Louis, 9.

It Looks That Way.

"Why do you sneer at Houston's claim to be a sea-port?" asked a stranger of a Galveston man the other day. "You are on the same footing in regard to a harbor as she is?"

"I do not see how," replied the Galvestonian. "Houston has nothing but a bayou, while Galveston—"

"Exactly. Houston, for a harbor, has a bayou one hasn't she?"

"Certainly." "And considering all the money spent upon it, and the amount you want the Government to spend, doesn't it look as though you desired to buy one too?"

It required six glasses of beer to restore the Galveston man to consciousness.—Sifting.

The Northwest War.

WINNIPEG, May 1.—General Lawrie telegraphed to the Hudson Bay company from Saskatchewan Landing, that the water in the South Saskatchewan had risen fifteen inches since yesterday. He was in hopes that Northcote had got off. The steamer Minnow went down from the landing yesterday. She will first take surgeons from Northcote to Clarke's Crossing. Lumber has been taken out to the landing to build barges, which will be rowed down to Northcote by some of the troops and by this means it is hoped that urgent wants may be relieved. General Laurie believes that means of transportation, by way of the river, can be devised notwithstanding the difficulties in the way. McDonald reports the excitement quieting down at fort Quappelle, and believes there is no danger. The Hudson Bay company has had advice from Prince Albert. All is well at that point, though the provisions are growing somewhat scarce and relief is anxiously looked for. No word has been received from General Middleton for a week. The rebels are still massed on both sides of the river at Batoche, waiting for Middleton's advance.

CLARKE'S CROSSING, May 1.—A scout from Prince Albert, who has just arrived, reports all well. He hears that the rebels have been heavy, and that the Indians deserted the half-breeds early in the fight on Friday. He says that the half-breeds have been circulating a report that they had only twenty or thirty men in the pits, and that the Indians and their followers were further back, waiting to draw Middleton into ambush and he also says that Eli, brother of Gabriel Dumont, was killed in the fight.

BATTLEFORD, May 1.—Colonel Otter is making preparations to advance on the Indians on Poundmaker's Reserve, but is not known when he will start out. The Battleford people have returned to their homes.

CALGARY, May 1.—Chief Factor Harisey, of the Hudson Bay Company, has received a letter from Rev. John McDougall, who left here with an escort of Stonie's three weeks ago, stating that he had reached Edmonton safely and was going further north on the road to Edmonton. Chief Kamenekia talked up for a time, but finally let him go. Factor McDonald, of the Hudson Bay Company, at Edmonton, also sends word that the trouble at Lake Pame is not as bad as reported, and that the troops are arriving at Edmonton just in time, as the Indians were getting very hostile and would undoubtedly have made an attack a day or two later.

At Panama.

PANAMA (via Galveston), May 1.—All is quiet here. The town has been in charge of the national troops since 1 p. m. yesterday, and during the armistice of forty-eight hours, many, probably the greater portion, of the rebels escaped, taking with them their arms. The health of the naval forces is very good. The first battalion is at Panama; the second at Colon; the artillery with Gatling guns are stationed along the lines at Matachica, San Pablo and other places. Admiral Jouett has gone to Colon and has ordered the extra forces to return to their stations.

PERSONAL.

ATKINSON'S Peck's Bad Boy Company are guests at the Valley House.

F. JORDEN, of this city, goes to St. Paul over the narrow-gauge to-day.

S. C. DALLAN, the architect, has returned from his pleasure trip, east.

FRED KRAMP, of Wanship, will take the local road, this morning, for Pittsburgh, Pa.

R. VON KRENCKI, Kaiserlich Deutscher Konsul, at Bangkok, Siam, is a passenger over the Denver & Rio Grande to New York, this morning.

J. T. WOODS, an old-time resident of this city, but now residing in Arizona, was in the city, yesterday, on his way to Europe, on a mission.

W. C. MORRIS is flashing around New York; a friend says the artist feels sure that he saw no metropolitan work in the sign-painting line which he could not equal.

D. MEYERS, of Benton, Meyers & Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, who is interested with Ferdinand Dickert in the sulphur mines of Southern Utah, was in the city yesterday, and bought a ticket at the D. & R. G. office for Cleveland.

Breakfasts.

The average breakfast is slighted. In the morning hurry the importance of his being good and wholesome is overlooked. Surely, when one comes to think of it, the first meal of the day ought to be something better than the hashed-up remains of yesterday's dinner. It is not necessary that a breakfast should be elaborate; but it should be particularly well cooked, appetizing and nourishing. If one is to fight business matters or more, a breakfast successfully or must go forth in the morning well strengthened in "the inner man." Well-fed men ordinarily know little of the craving for stimulants that gnaws at the stomach of the poorly-nourished laborer. Wives and mothers who would save their husbands and sons from the drink fiend cannot too early learn the lesson. Fresh fruit is always a most acceptable and healthful addition to any breakfast when the family exchequer will possibly allow it. A little indulgence in this luxury in the spring would save many a doctor's bill. Variety is also another point which should be aimed at. It is particularly antagonistic to early rising to know that one is getting up to the same everlasting breakfast of bread and butter, and egg and weak coffee.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

England Will Possibly Submit to Arbitration.

THE "WAR TALK" SUBSIDING.

Fortifying in Australia—Afghans Enraged at England's Policy—Russia's Counter Proposals.

The War.

LONDON, May 1.—Russian military authorities have established garrisons at Krasnovodsk, Askabad and Chikiallar.

PARIS, May 1.—The Suez Canal commission, composed of representatives of the powers, and appointed to fix the status of the canal in the event of war, will be dissolved immediately upon the declaration of war between England and Russia.

LONDON, May 1.—There is a slight relaxation in the tension of the relations of Russia and England. Russia appears to be disposed to entertain England's latest proposals to submit to the arbitration of one of the crowned heads of Europe the question whether the convention of March 17 was to be received by Russia. It is believed the King of Denmark will be selected as the arbitrator in the event of mediation being accepted.

ABDURAHMAN KHAN, Amir of Afghanistan, has been gazetted Knight Grand Commander of the order of the Star of India.

LLOYD'S telegram from St. Petersburg to-day states that the Russian government has forbidden the entry of ships into the port of Cronstadt. Vessels now on their way to Cronstadt will probably be required to load and unload in the new canal there.

PARIS, May 1.—It is rumored that Russia has made counter-proposals to England, and that these proposals will probably be accepted by England.

Fortifying in Australia.

MELBOURNE, May 1.—Incessant exertions are being made to place the colony of Victoria in a state of security against attacks by Russian cruisers in case of war. Popular enthusiasm in the matter has been thoroughly aroused. The military and naval preparations are in a high state of efficiency. Large meetings have been held, at which there were demonstrations of the loyalty of the colony to the British government. A strong feeling of confidence prevails. The port of Melbourne is considered to be impregnable. New rules have been issued regulating the lights in the light houses and the piloting of incoming vessels.

Dissatisfied Afghans.

LONDON, May 1.—A dispatch from T'ripul, dated April 23d, says that the Afghans are enraged against the British, and accuse Sir Peter Lumsden of deserting them as the Russians did in 1878. An Afghan member of the frontier commission has made a protest, in which he says it was shameful for the British to encourage the Afghans to resist the Russians at Peshawar and afterward to abstain from rendering any assistance.

The London News, in an editorial says it rejoices that the prospects of peace between England and Russia are brighter than at any time since the negotiations.

"A Quarter of a Cup of Tea."

"Yes, madam," said the Dominie. "Just a quarter of a cup of tea, if you please, and half a slice of toast. That is all I can eat this evening, for my dyspepsia is so bad." The poor man preached an awfully dry sermon, which put his hearers to sleep. But why should a minister have dyspepsia as long as Brown's Iron Bitters is to be had at the drug stores. The Rev. Mr. Offley, of Newbern, N.C., says: "I consider Brown's Iron Bitters one of the best medicines known."

FULLER'S HILL.

The Jam and the Attractions of the Opening Day.

Early in the morning yesterday streams of little folks wended their way to this popular out-door resort, and the streets were alive with young humanity from 9 or 10 o'clock until late in the afternoon, until the Hill then was literally alive with children of all ages and their mamma and guardians. All of the attractions of the place were well patronized and enjoyed. The camera obscura, Aunt Sally, swings, whirligigs, teters, shooting gallery, croquet plat, quoit ground, refreshment, ice cream and candy stands and dancing hall were swarming all day long; while round in the shades, arbors and grassy spots were groups of happy young folks reveling in the pleasure of a day from the studies of school and the duties of home. But the crowning success of the place, and one that was appreciated by all, was the rotary boat; it was kept revolving with full loads from the time it started until late in the evening. It was a novelty and one that will give satisfaction from now on. The Firemen's band entertained the visitors in the afternoon. While the counting of tickets was done, we should judge from the number we saw at the Hill, those who left and those on the way there in the afternoon, there must have been over 2,000 visitors to Fuller's on May Day.

Anglo-Russian Notes.

LONDON, May 1.—The temper of the English ministerial circles is becoming more pacific. It is reported that M. De Giers, Russian foreign minister, has imparted to Sir Edward Thornton, British ambassador at St. Petersburg, information that Russia intends to send to the British government a full statement regarding Gen. Komaroff's position, and asking England to consent to a mutual inquiry into the alleged breaking of the convention of March 17th, with a note that Russia would not absolutely reject the arbitration of the complication. An agreement has been concluded between England and the Turkish government by which the latter will allow vessels of the former to pass through the Dardanelles in the event of war with Russia. In return for this favor, Turkey will be allowed to send an expedition to occupy the Soudan by way of Suakima, and England will restore Cyprus to Turkey at the end of five years and guarantee the integrity of the States of the Porte.

LIVERNOR, May 1.—The captains of several Russian vessels here have received orders to leave the port without waiting for loads.

LONDON, May 1.—The Daily News confirms the Standard's report that England has proposed to submit to arbitration by any European sovereign, the question of who violated the agreement of March 17th. The Daily News adds that the Czar favors arbitration and ignores the individuality of General Lumsden and Komaroff.

Many ship owners in the north of England are uniting in a pledge to refuse to sell vessels to agents of the Russian government.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 1.—Seventy Sisters of Charity have been ordered to join General Komaroff's army to aid in caring for the wounded. Of this number thirty will go from St. Petersburg, twenty-five from Moscow and fifteen from Odessa.

The Fountain Beer Hall.

The proprietors of the above named establishment have succeeded in presenting to the Salt Lake public a resort in which devotees at the shrine of Gambrinus can find the product of the lively hop and the festive barley in all its old-time splendor. The hall is really the finest thing of the kind ever established here, great pains and lavish outlays being evident on every point wherever the beholder may look. The front part of the building is furnished with a bar nicely trimmed, and the surroundings are such as contribute largely to the tastes of those who patronize the wine when it is red as well as the beer when it is amber; linoleum covers the floor, pictures adorn the walls, and the adjuncts are generally complete. In the back part is an elegant fountain, the base being an aquarium in which artificial ducks and real fish are swimming, the statette above being a figure of a little boy and girl clinging together and holding over them an umbrella, from which the little jets of water, forced above it by a mechanical contrivance beneath, fall in the most natural manner imaginable and impart a sensation of coolness, which of itself is quite refreshing, and will be more so as the warmth of the season advances. To say that the place was thronged would be a meagre expression; it is an open question as to which had the greater attendance, the beer or the lunch counter, both being besieged for hours after the opening by a hungry and thirsty throng, who received the freedom of the house without protest or remonstrance. Such a crowd in one place on such an occasion has rarely been seen, and it is safe to say that the amount of beer deposited beneath the feet of the tenants was something startling. It is certainly a palace in its way, and Charley Parker, an expert among the glasses, will hold the reins with a nimble corps of assistants. The lunch was really first class, and many partook of it, concerning whom the proprietors may properly say, in the language of "King Lear," "Thou wilt come no more, never, never, never."

Mill Creek Medal Match.

The first medal match of the Mill Creek Rifle Club occurred yesterday, with the following result: Ten shots at 300 yards:

The Caledonia.

The Caledonia grounds will be opened for the season this evening, and will be open every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon and evening hereafter during the summer, to members of the society and their friends. Members wishing to make up special parties on other nights, excepting Wednesdays and Saturdays, can do so by arranging with D. M. McAllister, chairman of the athletic committee.

From Tennessee.

Jonathan G. Kimball, whose name was prominently before the public at the time of the murder of missionaries in Tennessee, returned to this city after a two years' absence on Thursday night. He reports that the Mormons are still the object of threats in that State, but that several missionaries are still at work there; the number of missionaries at present in the south is about fifty. Mr. Kimball will remain in town several days and then leave for his home in Bear Lake.

THE CONFERENCE.

The First Day's Meetings at the Assembly Hall.

The quarterly conference of this Stake convened in the Assembly Hall yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, President Angus M. Cannon presiding. The various wards, quorums and organizations were nearly all represented. After the reading of the minutes of the last priesthood meeting, the statistical report for the quarter ending March 31st, 1885, was read.

President Cannon was pleased to note the growth of the Stake of which he was president, there being now a membership of 25,000.

He was followed by Elder Samuel McKay, who had just returned from a mission to Scotland, who recited his experience in preaching there. He had enjoyed his labors while away and bore a strong testimony of the truth of the work of God and the revelations which He had given. He did not feel like compromising with a view of avoiding the persecution which the Saints were now receiving.

Elder Charles Denney, who had also recently got back from England, related briefly his experience while away. He had witnessed manifestations of the power of the Almighty while absent, and bore his testimony to the truth of the gospel he had been preaching, and spoke of the doctrine of celestial marriage.

In the afternoon Elders Knox, George B. Wallace and James Sharp and President Cannon occupied the stand, delivering interesting discourses, containing counsel and instruction to the Saints. The last named waxed warm in an address to the Saints to live their religion and become worthy of their name.

PROFESSIONAL CARD.

DR. EDWARD B. FOOTE, SR.,

Author and Practitioner.

Of New York City, a SPECIALIST of Thirty Years' Experience, may be Consulted Daily, from 10 till 5, at the SPENCER HOUSE.

252 First East Street, between Second and Third South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dr. Foote is the well known author of "Plain Home Talk, embracing Medical Common Sense," of "Science in Story," etc., and editor of Dr. Foote's Health Monthly. Dr. Foote, Sr., is in Salt Lake City for the purpose of showing that the only Dr. Foote, Jr., or Dr. Foot, Jr., entitled to that designation, who has made himself conspicuous as a practitioner or writer, is his son, Dr. E. B. Foote, Jr., who has never visited Utah or the great west, nor practiced medicine outside of New York, where he has been associated with his father for the past ten years. Anyone using the name must show some reason that entitles him to do so, or his pretensions will be challenged. Any one who fraudulently and with intent to deceive, uses a name which does not belong to him, can hardly be relied upon as a safe counsellor when health and life are at stake.

The readers of Dr. Foote's works, all patients who have consulted him by letter, and the sick generally, are invited to call. No charge for consultation in person or by mail.

Dr. Foote's visit will be brought to a close as soon as the object which brought him here is accomplished. This unavoidable uncertainty renders it expedient that those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity of consulting the Doctor, without incurring the expense of a visit to New York, should do so without delay.
